

Dear Valued Customer.

The Applied Technical Services Family of Companies is excited to announce the acquisition of ILRT, Inc. on Friday December 29, 2023. The new acquisition will merge into Graftel, LLC, combining decades of service excellence and expanding both ILRT and Graftel's offerings across the United States, Europe, and the Middle East.

What does this mean to you?

As a combined team, we will continue to offer internal leak rate testing, instrumentation system setup, and installation services for ILRT customers while focusing on quality, deliverability, and culture that creates a safe and reliable world.

Dave Glover, President of Graftel, will lead the talented ILRT and Graftel teams as they continue to provide industry-leading integrated leak rate testing across the globe.

Should you have any questions, do not hesitate to contact us. We wish to personally thank you for your business. We look forward to continuing to provide the high level of quality services that your site has known and trusted for the past 30 years.
